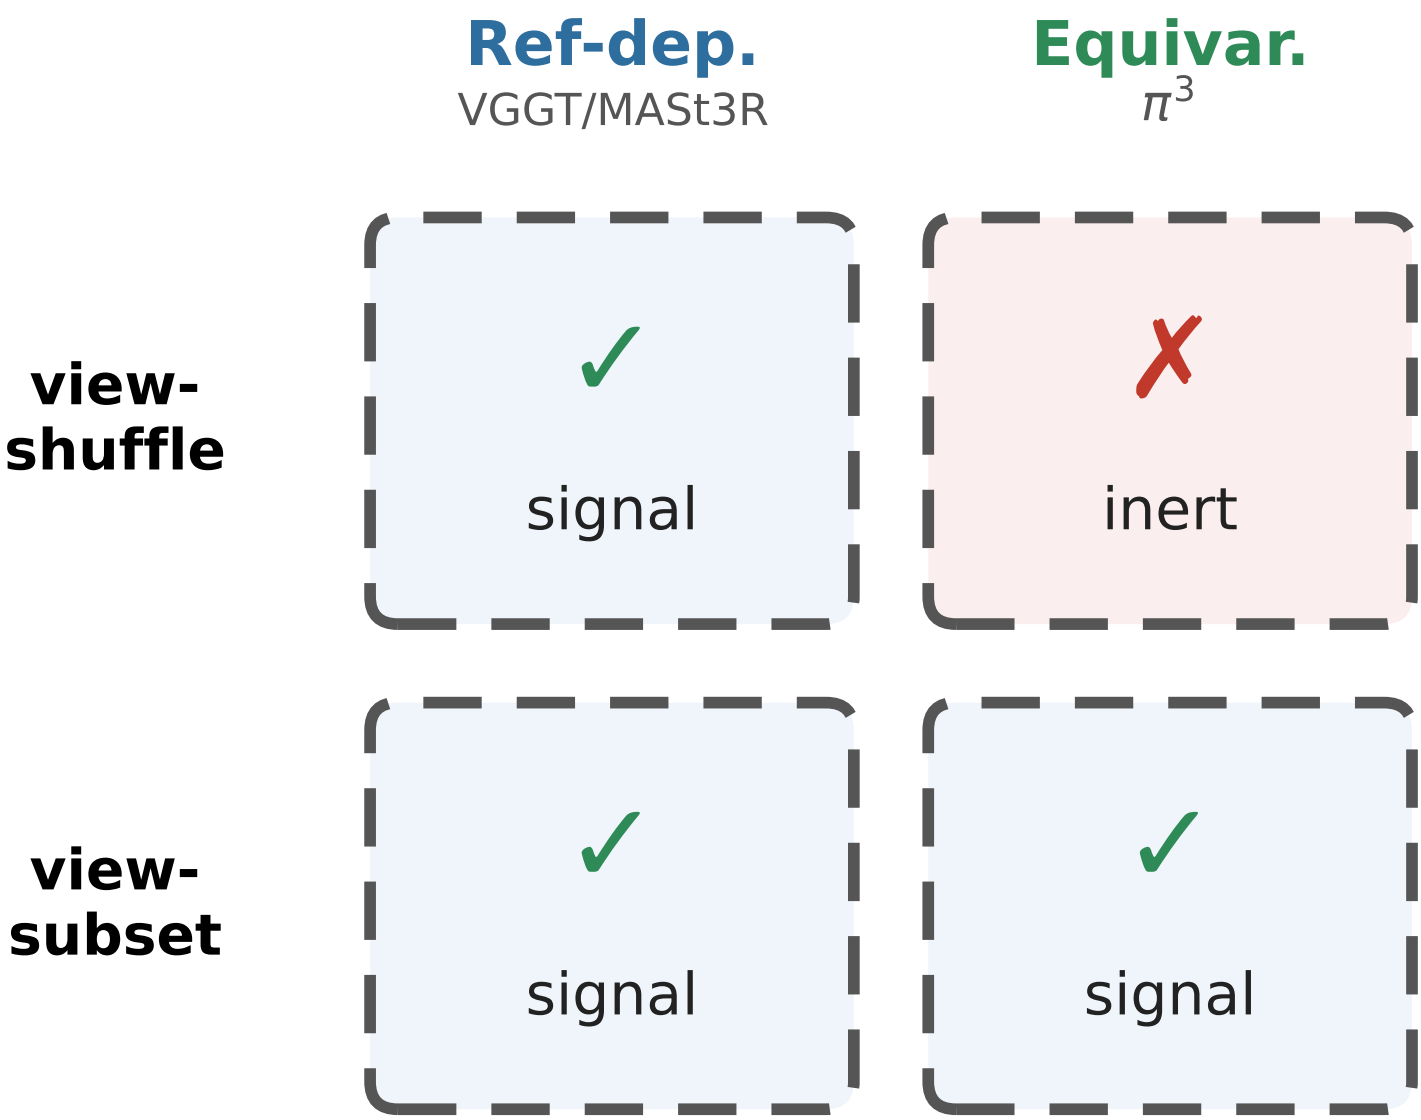
Sensitivity follows the backbone's symmetry



A shuffle is inert for the equivariant π^3; the held-out weights drop the inert family per backbone, with no tuning.